Message from Presidents

John and Debbie Cave

It was a good week for dancing. Debbie and I went to the Plus Squared Double Deal dance along with the Sees. Good dance and it was nice to see so many fellow dancers. We also attended the Texas Reelers for their Candy Cane dance. Nice to see the Sees, Bursons and the Harris there. It was a good dance with 5 squares at the grand march.

Remember that our lessons start up on Jan 9th at Liberty Recreation center. We'll need Angels to help the students learn. Plan on committing to some Mondays so we can have enough folks.

Christmas history:

Kissing under sprigs of mistletoe is a well-known holiday tradition, but this little plant's history as a symbolic herb dates back thousands of years. The Greeks were known to use it as a cure for everything from menstrual cramps to spleen disorders, and the Roman naturalist, Pliny the Elder, noted it could be used as a balm against epilepsy, ulcers and poisons. The plant's romantic overtones most likely started with the Celtic Druids of the 1st century AD. Because mistletoe could blossom even during the frozen winter, the Druids came to view it as a sacred symbol of vivacity, and they administered it to humans and animals alike in the hope of restoring fertility. Another famous chapter in mistletoe folklore comes from Norse mythology. As the story goes, when the god Odin's son Baldur was prophesied to die, his mother Frigg, the goddess of love, went to all the animals and plants of the natural world to secure an oath that they would not harm him. But Frigg neglected to consult with the unassuming mistletoe, so the scheming god Loki made an arrow from the plant and saw that it was used to kill the otherwise invincible Baldur. According to one sunnier version of the myth, the gods were able to resurrect Baldur from the dead. Delighted, Frigg then declared mistletoe a symbol of love and vowed to plant a kiss on all those who passed beneath it.

Swinging Stars Square Dance Lessons Starts January 9, 2023

Lessons start on January 9th at the Liberty Recreation Center in Plano. Lessons are from 7:15p to 9:00p and will run through May. We will be combining with the Pegasus Squares and Rebel Rousers clubs to obtain economies of scale. David Toms will be teaching the lessons. We will need angels to help with lessons and build relationships with the students. Good friendships are the basis for members joining our club at the end of lessons. We are still looking for a lessons coordinator, so please let us know if you are willing to serve our club in this way.

EVENTS FROM THE PAST WEEK

Of Interest Club Visitation for Plus Dancers

Thursday, December 15 – Plus Squared – Double Deal

Plus Squared had its Christmas - theme double deal dance Thursday evening featuring club caller Bill Hinkley. There was up to 3 squares of plus dancers who enjoyed the Christmas music. The Swinging Stars in attendance were the Caves, Rodgers, and Sees who enabled the club to get an additional 2 signatures toward our next goal of attaining our 1120 visitation patch.

Of Interest Club Visitation – Banner Retrieval

Friday, December 16 – Texas Reelers – Candy Cane Christmas

The Texas Reelers had a very well attended Christmas - theme dance Friday. The “highlight” of those attending would have to be the walking Christmas tree who seemed to get into all the pictures being taken. The club callers were Deborah Carroll-Jones and Jon Jones who called to 7 squares after the grand march and the club cuer was Chris Farabaugh. There was plenty of Christmas music and candy canes for the enjoyment of all who attended. The Swinging Stars who helped retrieve our banner were the Bursons, HARRISES, and Sees.

Of Interest Club Visitation

Saturday, December 17 – Rebel Rousers – Holiday Dance

The Rebel Rousers had 52 dancers show up for their Holiday dance. Mike Bramlett was the club caller who was joined by David Toms for one tip and his wife D' for another tip. There were mostly five squares all evening. Christine Hixson, the club cuer, cued rounds using mostly Christmas music. The 7 Swinging Stars who attended were Pete Abshire, Bursons, Nestors, and Sees.
