Friday, September 17 -- Kissin Kuzzins -- Lets Go Team -- Interest Wear Your Favorite Teams Shirt or Jersey

Kissin' Kuzzins had a "Let's Go Team" Dance on Friday. The guest caller was K O Jeanes who drove up from Houston. J L Pelton was the club cuer. It was a great combination to hear such wonderful voices. There were several new dancers and only 11 visitors (of which 8 were swinging stars). Swinging Stars in attendance were the Hamms, Nejdls, Sees, and Trujillos. A special thank you to Ron See for this report.

Saturday, September 18 -- Rebel Rousers -- State Fair Dance -- Official Banner Raid

The Rebel Rousers had a "State Fair" Dance on Friday. The club caller was Mike Bramlett and the club cuer was Christine Hixson. Mike and Christine are known for having a challenging, but fun dance that can be enjoyed by all that attend. The Swinging Stars captured the Rebel Rouser banner. Swinging Stars in attendance were P. Amy, Edwards, Harrises, Kilejians, Nejdls, Nesters, and Sees. A special thank you to Ron See for this report.

Lessons in Frisco! Do you have friends in the Frisco area who might like to learn to square dance? The Grove at Frisco Commons has asked Jan Bergesen to teach lessons there starting in October. She plans to do 2 lessons each week so your friends could join you at a dance in just 2 months! Lessons will be on Mondays and Wednesdays from 5:00 to 6:30. The price is just $28 per month per person (plus $5 to join their Senior Center). Text Jan if you are interested in more information. 972-834-4700.

Sunshine information

From Lucy Hamm our Sunshine Reporter

The weather is really lovely. September is a great time to travel. The leaves in New Hampshire were so colorful in late September and early October on our two trips.
