Square and Round Dance Club

Newsletter for March 23, 2025

Message from the Presidents

John and Debbie Cave

Debbie and I had fun dancing with the Plus Fours on Wednesday. Toby called a number of fun tips and made us use our brains to keep up. We had two squares with a couple of extra dancers.

We had a restful weekend and saw a few posts from the National Square Dance kick off down in Waco. It looked to be a large group and we are looking forward to next year for the Nationals.

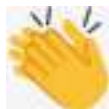

We picked decorations from Triangle Squares to use for our Anniversary dance in May.

See you in a Square.

John and Debbie Cave

Message from the 1st Vice Presidents

Charlie and Linda Harris

Thank you to all that come early and stay for tear down. You are appreciated.

Nevin and Sara provided snacks for our visitors!

See you in a square,

Of Interest Club Visitation for Plus Dancers

Wednesday, March 19 – Plus 4s

See President's message above.

Texas Reelers – Of Interest Club Visitation – Banner Raid

Friday, March 21 Funky Town

Deborah Carroll Jones called an interesting dance with songs from the 70'. We enjoyed such tunes as Funky Town, Queen of the Dance. Jon Jones joined Deborah in the usual 4th tip with a duet of tune Disco Dancing. There were several variations of Funky attire that added to the fun of the night. Sure, was a fun time at the Texas Reelers dance Friday night. There were 5 squares in the Frist tip. There wasn't much Round dancing, but there were several line dances between square dance tips. There were as many as 10 dancers LINE DANCING throughout the evening. Most of the evening there were 4 squares dancing the floor. The Swinging Stars had only 4-member attending. Thank you to Bursons and Kilejians for supporting the club visitation. Of course, we did not get their banner, but we did have a fun time. Thank you to Lorraine Burson for the report.
