Message from the Presidents

John and Debbie Cave

We had good club turn outs for the Weekend dances. Special thanks to Chris and Merry for supporting the Rabble Rousers dance on Saturday, after a long day dancing to Charlie's DBD dance. Hoping we can get a group to go to the Road Runner's Double Deal dance on Thursday at Swing Time. Please remember our dance on Friday, May 22nd and the General Meeting later this month on May 31st. See you in a Square,

John and Debbie Cave

EVENTS FROM THE PAST WEEK

Official Club Visitation – Banner Retrieval Friday, May 15 – Kissin' Kuzzins – A May-Zing Dance

The Kissin' Kuzzins held their "A May-Zing Dance" Friday evening with guest caller Tim Tyl entertaining the 41 dancers that attended. There were many new dancers that struggled a bit due to Tim's fast pace but his style was enjoyed by all. The 10 Swinging Stars who helped retrieve our banner were: the Bursons, Caves, HARRISES, Trujillos, Kathy Estep, and Ron See.

Official Club Visitation – Banner Retrieval Saturday, May 16 – Rebel Rousers – Salute the Troops

The Rebel Rousers held a patriotic "Salute to the Troops" dance with lots of red, white, and blue for the 41 dancers attending this dance. Club caller Mike Bramlett started the evening with a plus workshop which included the new calls Partner Hinge, Pass the Sea, and Clover and (Anything). Club cuer Christine Hixson cued to at most 5 round dancers and Mike called to at most 4 squares. The 8 Swinging Stars who helped retrieve our banner were the Caves, HARRISES, Trujillos, Sherry Boyle, and Ron See.
