Message from the 1st Vice Presidents

Charlie and Linda Harris

Dear Club Members,

Our next fund raiser for the club and "Double Deal Dance" will be on July 24th (Ice Cream Social). Please review the signup sheet below and let me know what you would like to bring! Thank you to all that have already volunteered to bring toppings and cookies and watermelon (a non-dairy item)!

Setup Details: It's a great opportunity to connect with fellow members and ensure that everything is in place for a wonderful experience. The signup sheet is at the end of the newsletter.

Of Interest Visitation

Sunday, June 14 – NORTEX Installation – Black & White Gala

No report submitted.

Official Club Visitation - 51st Anniversary – Banner Raid

Friday, June 19 – Texas Reelers – Lulu of a Luau

The Texas Reelers had a very successful Anniversary dance Friday evening featuring internationally-known guest caller Johnny Preston from California and club cuer Chris Farabaugh. The theme “Lulu of a Luau” proved to be very popular with plenty of Hawaiian attire, lots of food, and a large attendance. There were 12 squares after the Grand March comprising 93 guests for a total of 126 dancers. The 10 Swinging Stars in attendance who helped retrieve our banner were the Caves, Reids, Trujillos, Peggy Amy, Sherry Boyle, Charlie Harris, and Ron See.

Official Club Visitation – Banner Retrieval

Saturday, June 20 – Rebel Rousers – On the Trail to Nationals

The Rebel Rousers on Saturday evening held a Trail Thru dance entitled “On the Trail to Nationals” for dancers on their way to the National Square and Round Dance Convention in Waco next week. Club caller Mike Bramlett and club cuer Christine Hixson called and cued to 63 dancers. The 10 Swinging Stars that attended and helped to retrieve our banner were the Bergesens, Covingtons, Harrises, Trujillos, Peggy Amy and Ron See.
