Message from the Presidents

John and Debbie Cave

Our thanks to Linda and Charlie for covering for John and Debbie while we danced at the 25th Annual Route 66 Square Dance Jamboree in Elk City, OK. There were quite a number of NORTEX dancers. We shared a table with six couples from Kissin' Kuzzins along with Rob and Ann from Texas Reelers. We also saw Walter and Euliss. We shared the sad news about Donita with everyone. They all send their love to Ron and Donita.

We will see you all at our Ice Cream Double Deal dance on July 25.

Message from the 1st Vice Presidents

Charlie and Linda Harris

Dear Club Members,

As we reflect on our recent club dance, I want to take a moment to extend a sincere thank you to all the members who showed up early to help with the setup.

Setting up chairs, arranging snacks, setting the AC and ensuring everything was in place before the event takes time and effort, and your willingness to step up and lend a hand did not go unnoticed. It is this spirit of camaraderie and commitment that truly embodies the essence of our club.

We look forward to seeing all of you at our next event!

Charlie and Linda Harris

Sunshine information

From Peggy Amy and Nina Lassiter our Sunshine Reporters

From Ron See:

Donita was admitted to the hospital Thursday night. She has atrial fibrillation and a hole in her colon. It does not look good. Please keep her in your prayers. Obviously, we will not be at the dances this weekend. We are at Baylor Scott and White Plano but Donita will be moving to a Vitas hospice facility in Carrollton when a room opens up, then to our home. At least this is the plan at the moment. We are currently in room 524 but I don't know for how long. We are being provided with a lot of love/support from our sons and their wives Jason-Kelly and Jeff-Laura Anna. Thank you for your hugs and prayers. God provides.

So sorry to hear about Donita. We're sending a heartfelt hug and many prayers.
